

This action by Sinclair Communications is a travesty and must be stopped! The airwaves are there for the public good and airing blatantly partisan material by a private company to whom that trust has been given, without at the very least, airing the other side's viewpoint in equal time, is unconscionable and Un-American.